

Gen. Shelton who was the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of staff went to work for NBC as a commentator in 2002. "Gen. Shelton joined NBC News as an on-air commentator for breaking national security news in 2002. " <http://www.kepplerassociates.com/speakers/sheltonhugh.asp?1>

In the spring of 2002 Gen. Shelton had an accident the ended his career as a commentator.
<http://latc.com/2003/09/24/community/news01.html>

"His 6-foot-6-inch military bearing and commanding presence at the Celebrity Forum belied his recent personal battle. Only months after his retirement, following 400 parachute jumps from 30,000 feet, the former special ops soldier fell from a ladder outside his home, landed with his head caught in a chain-link fence and was partially paralyzed from the neck down. " Incredibly acrobatic of him don't you think?]

Mark Warner - on the last day of the National Governor's Association meeting, showed up with his wrist and forearm wrapped. His story was that he fell off his bike.

Arnold Schwarzenegger - supposedly broke his thigh bone skiing at Sun Valley. He wouldn't say how it happened.

Donald Rumsfeld - arm in a sling at a public ceremony just before he resigned. I never heard an explanation.

George Bush - big bruise on his face - supposedly choked on a pretzel and fell out of his chair.

Max Baucus - black eye.

Ted Stevens - arm in a sling (I'm not 100% sure of this one but I'm about 99% sure. This was before I really started paying attention.)

Tim Russert - fell down and hurt his leg. On crutches - 'coincidentally' before he testified against Scooter Libby.

Justice Souter - mugged in the park when he was jogging by 2 men who stole nothing. This was before the Kelo decision.

Congressional Staffer - Around the same time as Justice Souter, a congressional staffer was followed home by two men and was mugged in her drive way. Nothing stolen.

Senator Akaka. Arm injured - in a sling - he had the arm pinned down (so it wouldn't flap - like when you have your arm outside the sleeve).

Nancy Pelosi. When she was testifying about how she had a change of heart on nuclear power after 20 years of opposition, it appeared to me that she had some kind red marks on her right cheek that she had tried to cover with makeup. She's too old for zits.

Tim Walberg (MI) - arm in sling

Barney Frank (MA) - arm in sling

Chief Justice Roberts - "seizure" on his boat dock. Waiting to see what his face looks like.

Senator ? - immediately after the election this senator had some kind of anomolous 'brain event'. He is still hospitalized.

Suspected attempt -

John Ashcroft - visit in the hospital by Alberto Gonzales and Andrew Card - to get approval for illegal wiretapping. Richard Comey and FBI Director Mueller present.

Jon Corzine - Car accident

DOD Secretary Robert Gates...slipped on ice, broke his shoulder. Arm in a sling. 2/12/2008

Hillary Clinton 6.18.2009 slipped fell, fractured elbow.

Jerry McNerney (D) 3.17.2010 Cast on wrist

Looked like House Member John Lewis had injury to eye 3.17.2010

May 11, 2010 – observed Harry Reid, black eye and arm in sling. I saw the story last week, he allegedly slipped and fell on wet pavement. Problem? Left eye hurt, right arm in sling.

May 26, 2010, Congressman Canseco neck in a neck collar. Observed during hearing of Financial Services Committee hearing – FDIC oversight.